FRANK WALSH FIGHTING ROCKEFELLER PULL

Industrial Relations Commission In Row Over Report to Congress—Capital's Representatives Order Secret
Session—Bar Reporters.

BY DEAN HALLIDAY

What has happened to the Industrial Relations Commission—?

After working two years and spending nearly $500,000 of public money in an effort to find out and recommend remedy for existing labor and capital conditions have the Rockefellers got to them?

Is there any attempt being made to save the "System" by recommending only half way measures.

Is there an attempt on foot to save Rockefeller or Rockefeller agents from being summoned before Congress and made to tell the truth about the Colorado situation, the work of Mackenzie King, $100,000 investigator, and inner workings of the Rockefeller Foundation?

It is said that Chairman Frank Walsh and Commissioners James O'Connell, A. B. Garretson and John B. Lennon are for a report "with teeth."

The employer's representatives on the commission are holding out for a toothless, piffling report. These men are: Harris Weinstock, S. Thurston Ballard, R. H. Ashton.

They are believed, however, to have won over Mrs. J. Borden Harri-man and Prof. John R. Commons. If this is true they are in majority.

The commission finished taking
